

Heights Elementary IB World School Panthers

Celebrate Reading by

Raising Pennies for Hurricane Relief

Heights Elementary is celebrating reading in a different way for the first quarter of this school year.

All of our Heights families have been affected in some way by Hurricane Harvey, Hurricane Irma and/or Hurricane Maria. Height's Panthers are: Celebrating Reading to Raise Pennies for Hurricane Relief.

During the week of October 9, 2017 students may bring in pennies (any donation accepted) for those still in need. The donated money will be given to an organization that is providing relief in Texas, Florida, and Puerto Rico.

On October 13, 2017, students may dress up as their favorite storybook/fiction/non-fiction/biographical character following these simple rules:

- Students need to be able to navigate through the day, including recess and PE, in their costume.
- All costumes must conform to the Heights Elementary dress code. Closed toe shoes; no high heels, please.
- Students need to bring the book in which their character appears.
- Heavy makeup, violent, scary, gory costumes not allowed.
- Weapons of any kind (even paper, cardboard, or plastic ones) may not be brought to school.

Please save your pennies and send them in during the week of October 9, 2017.
